

Fortnightly THE LAW A Publication of Law Foundation

Volume 4

Issue 4

1st September 2008

Page Rs. 50

KARACHI CENTRE FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Use Mediation - Save Time and Money

Karachi Centre for Dispute Resolution (KCDR) is a leading Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) Centre in Karachi. KCDR has on its rolls foreign accredited mediators who assist parties to resolve their disputes through mediation and save time and cost

Recent Update

Following is the recent update from KCDR:

- * Since launch of KCDR in 2007, the Centre has received over 90 cases in which one third have been successfully resolved.
- * KCDR has launched its training program and has held three trainings/work shops in June 2008 in Karachi which was attended by participants from the corporate, banking and legal sectors as well as from judiciary.
- * KCDR hosted two Interns for two weeks. These Interns are law students at SZABIST, Karachi and University of Warwick, U.K.
- * KCDR has redesigned and updated its website. The website can be visited at www.kcdr.org

KCDR Services

As an ADR Centre, KCDR provide following major services to private clients, businesses, banks and organizations:

- * Mediation services.
- * Training services.

For further information about KCDR and its services, please contact

Director

Karachi Centre for Dispute Resolution
D-9/5, Park Lane, Clifton Block 5, Karachi.
Tel. No.: 021-5879209, 5810514, 5820030
Fax. No. 021-5879193
E-mail: mediate@kcdr.org, info@kcdr.org
Website: www.kcdr.org